Menet Defented the Pavorite, Armenia, by Half a Length. New York, Sept. 20—Monet, at 29 to 1, won the Buy Bhore Selling Stakes, about six furiongs, at Gravescud to-day, defeating performer on that kind of a track, and has run some first-class races in sticky clay like that likely to be in evidence when she meets Shelley. It appears us though she can surely be selected here for the place.

Her race behind Arlena, on a course not exactly suited to ber, was good enough to prove that she is getting buck to her best form. She should be not worse than second this afternoon, Lady Mercury, on her known mud form, should be third.

Allen Avon picks up a lot of weight in this race, is in with a better class of youngsters than he has met for some time and may be overlooked here. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 29.—The horse owners are now in full control of the Newport track. A meeting was held and officers ciected to carry on the meeting. Thomas E. And of Leesburg. Va., owner of Red Light and other horses, was elected president and presiding judge; S. C. Charles was made associate judge, and John Edgreumbe was appointed temporary secretary and treasurer.

Secretary Ralph Tozer and all the officers of the so-called Southern Racing Association were custed and have nothing further to do with the meeting. Young J. J. Greene of St. Louis, who has been financing the meeting the last two days, has also withdrawn.

Secretary Tozer and his St. Louis friends will remain hero until to-morrow night and then clear out. Only two books drew in again to-day, and the 'bank rolls' were furnished by horsemen. D. V. Rogers, owner of Labor and other horses, furnished by horsemen. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

furnished by horsemen. D. V. Rogers, owner of Labor and other horses, furnished the money for one of the books. Every effort will be made to carry the meeting through to Saturday, when the horsemen intend to put on several outomobile races as an extra attraction to bring out the public. The attendance today did not quite reach 200.

Spring Rock won the fourth race, but was disqualified for fouling.
